RESEARCH ACTIVITY

The research activity of Gianluca Campo is mainly focused on ischemic heart disease and on myocardial infarction. The research activity ranges from basic research (endothelial function, oxidative stress, platelet aggregation, reperfusion injury) to investigator driven monocentre and multicentre studies (myocardial infarction, drug eluting stent, fractional flow reserve, strategies of revascularization, regimen of dual antiplatelet therapy, exercise program) to sponsored multicentre trials (local principal investigator or member of steering committees). Gianluca Campo won several competitive grants from public and private companies to support his research activities.

PARTECIPATION IN EXECUTIVE OR STEERING COMMITTEES OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

- 2013: NATIONAL COORDINATOR for Italy for the study MODIFY, EUDRACT number 2012-004779-38.
- from the 2014: member of the Scientific Board of the cardiogroup.org project.
- 2015: Member of the STEERING COMMITTEE of the study BVS STRATEGY IT, NCT02601781.
- 2017: Member of the International Clopidogrel Pharmacogenomics Consortium (ICPC). This collaboration is granted by the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute of the National Institutes of Health (Award Number U01HL105198).
- 2017: Member of the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the study HALE-BOPP, NCT03079739.
- 2018: CHAIRMAN of the study FIRE, NCT03772743.
- 2019: NATIONAL COORDINATOR for Italy for the study FAVOR III Europe-Japan, NCT03729739.
